PRESS RELEASE

Weston International Capital Limited And Its Subsidiaries Amends Their Formal Complaint Against J Trust Co., Ltd (8508.T) With The Tokyo Stock Exchange To Include A Mandatory Suspension of J Trust Co., Ltd and Nobuyoshi Fujisawa's Share Buyback Programs.

Weston International Capital Limited and its subsidiaries (“Weston”) delivered a request today to the Japanese Financial Services Agency and the Tokyo Stock Exchange to amend its Formal Complaint filed on June 30, 2015 against J Trust Co., Ltd (8508.T) and its Board of Directors for acts of Statutory Audit Material Non-Disclosure to include an immediate suspension of all J Trust Co., Ltd and Nobuyoshi Fujisawa's Share Buyback Programs.

“In addition to our Formal Complaint filed on June 30, 2015 against J Trust Co., Ltd requesting an immediate suspension of all trading of J Trust's Common Shares (8508.T) on the Tokyo Stock Exchange pending investigations of alleged acts of Statutory Audit violations, we have amended our Complaint today to prevent J Trust and Nobuyoshi Fujisawa from any and all trading in J Trust common stock, whether publicly or privately, pending the on-going investigation by the Japanese Financial Services Agency, the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the Monetary Authority of Singapore”, said a Weston spokesman.

“Given the seriousness and extent of non-disclosure by J Trust's Board of Directors to the public of recent legal events and new International Court Orders, it would be improper to allow J Trust to continue to trade their own shares in the open market. Nobuyoshi Fujisawa, as President, CEO and Controlling Shareholder should have already voluntarily suspended himself from trading in J Trust's common shares under the regulations of the Tokyo Stock Exchange. To date, he has failed to do so through any public disclosure”, said the spokesman. The Amendment to the Formal Complaint Letter is available upon request.
