PRESS RELEASE

New US$115,750,000 Weston International Capital Ltd Lawsuit versus J Trust Co., Ltd and PT Bank JTrust Indonesia TBK in the High Court of Singapore (Case No. HC/S 1060/2015) Replaces Weston International Asset Recovery Company Inc. Withdrawal of US $80,000,000 New York Lawsuit on July 1, 2015

Weston International Capital Limited (“WICL”) and its subsidiaries filed a new US$115,750,000 lawsuit against J Trust Co. Ltd (8508.T) and PT Bank JTrust Indonesia TBK jointly and severally in the High Court of Singapore for non-payment of US$80 million of Bank JTrust defaulted Convertible Bonds, US$21.5 million of defaulted Bank JTrust deposits and other defaulted liabilities due and payable for US$112,500,000 of First Global Fund PLC Ltd Preference Shares delivered in December 2014.

This lawsuit replaces Weston International Asset Recovery Limited’s lawsuit withdrawn in the Southern District Federal Court of New York in July 2014. The WIARCI withdrawal was solely due to Bank J Trust New York correspondent bank accounts being depleted on the alleged instructions of J Trust. A Weston Spokesman said, “In summary there is no money to collect in New York from any of our lawsuits from Bank J Trust’s correspondent banks as their accounts have all been totally depleted or frozen under Weston Global Mareva Freezing Orders”.

WICL will be publishing a research report tomorrow showing J Trust common stockholders how over US$675 million of US$833 million of J Trust Rights Offering proceeds received in June 2013 has been misspent over two years in J Trust Investments. WICL has also repeated its request to the Tokyo Stock exchange (“TSE”) to suspend all trading in J Trust Co Ltd common stock (8508,T) pending further investigation of acts of Statutory Audit Fraud at J trust Co Ltd and Bank J Trust Indonesia TBK under new disclosures to the TSE.
