PRESS RELEASE

Weston International Capital Limited Aids PT Bank Mutiara TBK in Collection on Defaulted Securities

Weston International Capital Limited (“WICL”) is aiding PT Bank Mutiara TBK efforts in collection on US$170,500,000/Rp 1.96 trillion of Fund Linked Note Certificates of Deposit (“FLNCD’s”) structured, issued and sold to the Bank by Nomura International PLC in 2003 to 2008 a subsidiary WICS owns US$279,000,000 of the same securities. First Global Funds Limited PCC (Mauritius) (“FGFL”) manages the Preference Shares that back the FLNCD’s. Most of the FGFL lead collections are in various steps of litigation with the first trial coming up in May 2014 against Robert Tantular (the ex-Chairman of PT Bank Century TBK) seeking US$198,200,000 of funds lent to Tantular in 2003 to 2005 that were never repaid.

A WICL spokesman said “These attempts to collect against Robert Tantular and other creditors of First Global Funds Limited is long overdue. We will seek Summary Judgements against Mr Tantular and then enforce collections all over the world.

Our collections will aid FGFL Preference Shareholders with partial returns of their capital. PT Bank Mutiara TBK is the second largest holder of FLNCD’s and Preference Shares of FGFL. Our collective recoveries could be substantial”.
